

LUIS ÁNGEL ARIZAGA ZÁRATE

INDEPENDENT MEMBER

Mr. Arizaga is a partner of Exus Management Partners, serving the Mexican market and the Andean region.

Prior to joining Exus, he founded EIRA Capital, an investment platform focused on energy and infrastructure transactions in Mexico and South America. Previously, he was part of Macquarie's management team in Latin America, where he spent more than seven years in the Macquarie Capital and Macquarie Funds divisions, working on financial advisory projects, raising capital for funds, capital investments in energy and infrastructure projects, and managing invested assets. During his years at Macquarie, he also held positions on the board of directors of various investments made by Macquarie covering energy, public-private partnerships, roads and telecommunications companies.

Prior participation in financial institutions includes positions in the investment banking teams of Deutsche Bank's M&A group in New York, and the Citibank's Banamex Accival M&A group in Mexico.

In addition, it currently participates as: an independent member of the Investment Committee of the INFONAVIT Investment Fund, board member of SIMPATI Mobile, a new Mobile Virtual Network Operator covering the Mexican market, and founder of the Reversible Foundation, a new charitable foundation focused on global warming issues.

Mr. Arizaga holds an MBA from the Leonard N. Stern School of Business at New York University, and a bachelor's degree in accounting and finance from ITESM in Mexico.