

JIMENA GONZÁLEZ DE COSSÍO

INDEPENDENT MEMBER

Mrs. González de Cossío specializes in corporate and financial law, including securities operations, international and structured financings, M&A, as well as wealth management for private clients and family offices. She also has experience in international and structured finance operations in several industries, including the infrastructure and energy sectors.

In terms of M&As, she has participated in several transactions representing the sell-side, buy-side, private equity firms, and other investors, both domestic and international. Likewise, Mrs. González de Cossío has advised public and private companies on corporate governance and compliance.

In terms of patrimonial management, she advises, family offices on the structuring and planning of patrimonial investments, administrative and family succession structures.

Jimena González de Cossío has a degree in Law from the Universidad Iberoamericana. In addition, she has a Master's Degree in Banking and Financial Law from Boston University, as well as numerous postgraduate degrees in corporate governance and capital markets from top global universities.